The big chestnut filly had the lead, turned back a challenge, dug in gamely but was caught in the final strides to lose by a neck. In a handicap at Charles Town on August 26th, FLATTERING BEA settled off the pace, started a bid at the 5/16th pole and won by five lengths. Jester. GRASSHOPPIN dueled in the five path, moved closer to the rail, repulsed challenges in mid stretch and edged away. On June 16th in another allowance at Parx Racing, he was off the early pace, rallied around rivals on the final turn and into the stretch opened a clear lead to win by a neck. He added another stakes placed finish with a third in the $75,000 Turning for Home Stakes at Parx on June 27th.
